

International Collaborative Leadership Institute

www.ICLIInstitute.org

Four Guidelines for a Steady Moral Compass

A Higher Standard for Rebuilding Trust in America

1. Follow the Golden Rule:

- Be Golden: Do Unto Others as you would have them do unto you.
- Be Respectful: Respect everyone, even those you don't like.
- Be Gracious: Show your gratefulness to others for little things.
- Be Friendly: Greet people with a smile and open mind.

2. Fulfill Your Responsibilities:

- Be Dutiful: Fulfill your responsibilities to your conscience, to America, our families, and our planet.
- Be Benevolent: Give aid to others in need or in danger.
- Be Righteous: Protect the rights and freedoms of those being violated.
- Be Ethical: Obey righteous laws. Never use your position as a public servant for personal gain.

3. Be Trustworthy:

- Be Truthful: Keep your word & promises.
- Be Honorable: Never use Public Office for Personal Gain. Do not lie, deceive, cheat or steal.
- Be Courageous: Stand for what's right. Stand against what's wrong. Do not act with malicious intent.
- Be Vigilant: Keep a keen eye on those who are cruel, evil, manipulative or cunning.

4. Be Fair:

- Be Just: Listen to all sides before making judgments. Do not intentionally polarize.
- Be Creative: Turn differences into opportunities to learn, be agile, innovate and unite.
- Be a Guardian: Protect others. Do not deprive others of safety, security, or family.
- Be Humane: Look out for the Greater Good. Do not intentionally cause pain, harm, or violence.

